Chartron Trebuchet

Chartron et Trebuchet Macon Village

France - Burgundy

Chardonnay

The History

The more southerly vineyards of Burgundy which surround forty three little villages and hamlets in the Mâconnais region. One of these is none other than that from which Chardonnay takes its name.

The Wine

Made from 100% Burgundian CHARDONNAY. Appellation d'Origine Contrôlée.

Tasting Notes

Macon Villages is dry and smooth. It charms the palate with distinctive aromas of flowers and fruit. Mâcon Villages is appreciated for its refreshing spontaneous style.

Food Pairing

Lightly chilled with sea-food and shell-fish without highly spiced sauces. Good companion to white meat dishes. Excellent apéritif.
