

Consilience Pinot Noir Solomon Hills 2006

The Bien Nacido vineyard is a renowned source for some of the most elegant Pinot Noir in the Santa Maria appellation, if not the entire Santa Barbara County wine region. Typical of Consilience wines, you'll find a balanced concentration of flavors and silky texture taken to level of intensity that almost defines its own style. Aged eleven months in French Oak barrels, this wine exhibits rich flavors of dark cherry and strawberry layered in with nuances of leather and a touch of vanilla.

History:

Consilience was founded in 1999 when after years of planning the aspirations of two couples became a small reality. There of course is a long story, but the short of it began when winemaker Brett Escalera, his wife Monica, and the two of us, Tom and Jodie Daughters all met back in 1990 with many common values and interests. Wine and the lifestyle surrounding it were of particular interest to us, and after years of planning, education and good old fashioned perseverance Consilience started with a small production of 1997 Syrah from Santa Barbara County.
