

“Old Vines” Maison Galhaud Grenache Noir 2005 Vin de Pays Catalan

This wine is produced from low-yielding vines that average more than 50 years in age. These vines are grown in the far South of France, in the rugged Pyrenees orientals area. Rich, opulent, darkly colored and intensely aromatic, this wine will reveal its complex quality with 3-7 years of additional age.

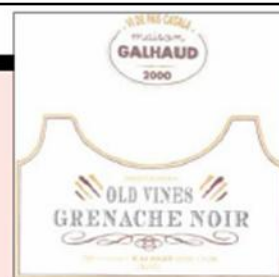

“Old Vines” Maison Galhaud Grenache Noir 2005 Vin de Pays Catalan

This wine is produced from low-yielding vines that average more than 50 years in age. These vines are grown in the far South of France, in the rugged Pyrenees orientals area. Rich, opulent, darkly colored and intensely aromatic, this wine will reveal its complex quality with 3-7 years of additional age.

“Old Vines” Maison Galhaud Grenache Noir 2005 Vin de Pays Catalan

This wine is produced from low-yielding vines that average more than 50 years in age. These vines are grown in the far South of France, in the rugged Pyrenees orientals area. Rich, opulent, darkly colored and intensely aromatic, this wine will reveal its complex quality with 3-7 years of additional age.

“Old Vines” Maison Galhaud Grenache Noir 2005 Vin de Pays Catalan

This wine is produced from low-yielding vines that average more than 50 years in age. These vines are grown in the far South of France, in the rugged Pyrenees orientals area. Rich, opulent, darkly colored and intensely aromatic, this wine will reveal its complex quality with 3-7 years of additional age.