

Rappenhof Oppenheimer Herrenberg Riesling Kabinett

History:

This large family-run wine estate can look back on a long tradition. In fact, its origins can be traced back to the year 1604. The Rappenhof estate is a member of the VDP and the Barrique Forum. The family cultivates a total of 50 hectares. Riesling is especially important here, with a 42 percent share of the growing area. For years now, baroque processing has been used in the firm's cellar and open fermentation on the skins as well as wooden barrel again have been practiced in the production of red wines.
