

GOLDLOCH RIESLING SELECTION 2002

Wine Spectator

92 Points
April 2002

This is vivid and expressive, pumping out the floral, peach and citrus notes on a light-weight framework. It ends with an aftertaste of spices and pastry. Balanced and long.

The Diel family has owned this famous Nahe estate since 1802. In 1987 television personality, restaurant critic and wine writer Armin Diel took control and quality has soared upwards ever since.

There are 15 hectares of vines comprising 70% Riesling, 20% Pinot Gris, 5% Pinot Blanc and 5% Pinot Noir.

While a lot of attention is focused on Armin's new oak-aged Pinot wines, his best wines are without doubt his classic style Rieslings from Doersheim's 3 best sites - Goldloch, Pittermännchen and Burgberg. Concentration, balance and elegance are the hallmarks of these wines, which are amongst the most sought-after in the Nahe today.
