

David Sterza

David Sterza Amarone DOC

Italy - Veneto

Amarone

The History

David Sterza winery is located in the tiny Valpolicella village of Casterna, in the foothills of the Lessini mountain range, the David Sterza wine estate was established in 1998, but the Sterza's have been producing wine through a long family tradition handed down from father to son. When the estate was passed into the care of the young David Sterza he sought the professional guidance of his cousin, the renowned wine expert Paolo Mascanzoni and together they set about producing some of the finest wines in the Valpolicella. This came about due to the fact that David and Paolo decided not to sell their grapes as had happened in the past, but to press, process and bottle the wine on their own premises. Thus the Sterza wine estate was born.

The Vineyard

David Sterza. Amarone Della valpolicella DOC Classico. Alcohol 15% by vol - Total acidity 6.07 g/l. Amarone is what the Valpolicella is rightly famous for and the David Sterza Amarone Classico is simply one of the best: a powerhouse wine

The Wine

15 Months in French oak Barrel

Tasting Notes

Full bodied, intense and above all elegant, the Amarone was named in the 18th century and used to identify a wine produced from late pressed drier, more concentrated grapes. This gives a much more powerful and intense taste experience.
