CHATEAU DE LAUBADE

CHATEAU DE LAUBADE BAS ARMAGNAC

FRANCE

BAS ARMAGNAC

The History

Chateau de Laubade was founded in 1870, in the heart of Gascogne, in the noblest terroir of the Bas Armagnac. It is the largest single-estate Armagnac house (260 acres). The “Home-made” distillation with a custom-made still is perfectly controlled. It allows extracting all the best aromas and flavors of the wines grown and vinified at the property. The bottling date and lot numbers are always listed on the bottle, ensuring a complete traceability.

The Cellar Master carefully oversees and guarantees the finest maturation and the blending of the brandies using only oak casks from Gascony.

The Grapes

Using the 4 traditional grapes:

Ugni Blanc, Baco, Folle Blanche, Colombard

Pairing

Serve Chateau de Laubade to conclude a meal in a brandy glass.

It is also a delicious accompaniment of Fois gras.

Fruits and chocolate desserts as the sweetness of the dessert softens the strength of the spirit.

It also pairs very well with an espresso or a fine cigar.
