MOILLARD

SAVIGNY LES BEAUNE VIEILLES VIGNES

FRANCE

PINOT NOIR

The History

In the Northwest of the Côte de Beaune. The vineyards surround the picturesque village of Savigny-lès-Beaune. The soil is composed of limestone mixed with clay. The vines are 250 meters above sea level and face East / South-east. Average age of vines: 40 years. The vines are worked using integrated viticulture. Traditional vinification in thermo-regulated stainless steel. Pre-fermentation temperature controlled cold maceration. Aged in oak barrels for 12 months.

The Grape

100 % Pinot Noir

Tasting Note

Deep red with purple highlights. Red fruit on the nose which opens with notes of cherry, strawberry and raspberry. Good balance on the palate with a nice structure that holds well on the finish with a little acidity that provides freshness and vanilla and roasted notes all nicely assembled.
