The total ar-ea of the vineyard is 25 hectares. Their Lalande de Pomerol is produced at Néac on a Clay and Sand Soils, this combination to ensure a harmonious combination of power and elegance. Tasting Note

The color is dark with slightly advanced reflections. The ageing in barrels rewards this wine of great complexity. It opens with spicy hints, blond tobacco and liquorice. The palate is full and generous. This wine is very charming and very long in the mouth.
