Pinot Noir

The History

During his seven vintage tenure at Oregon winery Domaine Serene, Tony Rynders made a record-breaking Wine Spectator 97 point Pinot noir and an armload of other highly scored wines. For his entire career, his highly sought after Pinot noirs have sold for up to $225. No other winemaker in Oregon makes as much "ultra-premium" wine as Tony.

The Grape

Tasting Note

The wine displays aromas of rose petals, red cherry, sandalwood, slight cedar and spiced plum. The palate is full and round, with wild plum, pie cherry, slight licorice, cardamom and supple tannins.
