ATANEA PINOT NOIR

Casablanca Valley

PINOT NOIR

The History

Atanea comes from a small organic vineyard of Pinot Noir created in 2000 in the middle of a native forest overlooking the Casablanca Valley, near Ovalle in the Coastal Cordillera. Near Ovalle on the foothills of the Coastal Mountain Range in the Casablanca Valley. Clay soil with strong concentration of organic materials (1.5 to 2%) and strong proportions of gravels (40 to 60%) from the Andes.

The Grape

100% Pinot Noir

Tasting Note

This well structured though very fruit-forward and long in mouth pinot noir shows impressive flavors of wild strawberries, litchee and strawberries with notes of leather , thyme and laurel flowers.
