DOMAINE DE BEL AIR—BEAUJOLAIS VILLAGES
“GRANITS BLEUS”

BEAUJOLAIS

GAMAY

The History

Domaine de Bel-Air has been overlooking Beaujeu, the historic capital of the Beaujolais region, since 1840.

The vineyards are on the fully south facing slopes of Bel Air, where the terroir is made up of blue granite. This gives superb fruity and generous Gamay wines

The Grape

100% Gamay

Tasting Note

Fleshly and supple with a lightly tannic structure, meaning that it can be enjoyed at any time of the day.

Red fruit, mainly black currant and raspberry. Aromas are at the fore.

Ideal with delicatessen meats, patés, savoury tarts or simply as an aperitif.
