

MADAME VEUVE POINT

POMMARD 1ER CRU

BURGUNDY

PINOT NOIR

The History

Madame Veuve Point is the unique story of a woman winemaker whose Pouilly-Fuissé won the Grand Prize at the Saint Louis world's fair, in the USA in 1904. Today, Géraldine Point has picked up the torch from her great-great-grandmother and will guide you to discover all the diversity of Burgundy with over 30 AOP wines mainly from the most famous Villages.

100% PINOT NOIR

Tasting Notes

Its deep red appearance, of a ruby purple gives way to a sumptuous nose with fragrances of blackberry, blueberry, cherry stone, and mature plums. Maturity brings out the leather, pepper and notes of roast coffee. One can particularly appreciate its round texture, supported by a nice tannic, strong consistency.
