

MADAME VEUVE POINT

SANTENAY CLOS BELLEFOND

BURGUNDY

PINOT NOIR

The History

Madame Veuve Point is the unique story of a woman winemaker whose Pouilly-Fuissé won the Grand Prize at the Saint Louis world's fair, in the USA in 1904. Today, Géraldine Point has picked up the torch from her great-great-grandmother and will guide you to discover all the diversity of Burgundy with over 30 AOP wines mainly from the most famous Villages.

100% PINOT NOIR

Tasting Notes

This wine made from Pinot Noir offers a deep purplish, black cherry hue, and aromas of peony, violet, and red fruit with a hint of liquorice. The attack is incisive, with solid tannins constructing a robust palate, with a superbly refined texture.
