Chateau Pavillon de Leoville Poyferre

SAINT JULIEN

BLEND

The History

“The appellation Saint Julien is small by its surface, and large by its talent. At the heart of this Médoc setting, Château Léoville Poyferré has always been one of the most prestigious properties of this terroir. Since 1979, our family is engaged in a process that leaves no room for improvisation. Every decision, every investment is a step closer to the ultimate quality, the one that makes a simple wine, an exceptional product, recognized Second Grand Cru Classé 1855”

Didier Cuvelier

The Grape

78% Cabernet Sauvignon and 22% Merlot

Tasting Note

The nose is elegant, aromatic and offers a beautiful definition, a fine complexity and harmony. It reveals notes of ripe wild blackberry, wild cassis and small notes of wild raspberry associated with small touches of small berries, lily, violet as well as a hint of tea and spices. The palate is fruity, well-balanced and offers a juicy frame, tension, tension as well as dynamism. On the palate this wine expresses notes of pulpy/juicy raspberry, cassis and small notes of violet associated with touches of blackberry, small wild red fruits as well as a fine hint of plum, black tea, Badiane and sweet spices. Good length and persistence
