DOMAINE PETITE AUBREGUIERE

PROVENCE

MISTRAL ROSE

The Appellation

Nested in the gentle landscapes of Provence’s countryside, The Petite Aubreguière estate is where the Buisine family brings its winemaking philosophy to life, uniting a distinctive terroir with expressive grape varieties. In 2015, after 30 years of working as a key agronomy and oenology advisor for various vineyards, Francois Buisine took ownership of the domain to finally be able to make “his wines, his way”. Identity symbol of the territory, object of legends and metronome of the local life, the Mistral wind preserves indeed the vine of the humidity and the diseases.

The Grape

47% Grenache - 30% Cinsault – 20% Syrah – 3% Rolle

Wine Making

Plots located on a plateau at an altitude of 280m Dry and stony soils 100% destemmed Maceration in the press; Low-pressure pneumatic pressing; Selection of the first juices; Cold settling; Fermentation in tank at 16°C; Blocking of malolactic fermentation

Tasting Note

From a pale and bright pink color, this elegant well-balanced rosé is an ideal companion from aperitif through the entire meal.
