Tarente Blanc

The History

Moulin de la Roque is the work of a group of wine growing families united in the same goal; men and women driven by the same love of their work and the land of Bandol. Bandol is a vast natural amphitheater planted with vines, looking out to the Mediterranean sea. It is an encounter between sun, sea, wind, rock and vegetation. Producers here are the go-betweens that help bring the best out of each element.

THE GRAPE

86% Clairette – 7% Ugni blanc – 7% Bourboulenc

TASTING NOTE

Maturation on its fine lees gives volume and power to the wine. Golden and shiny color. Fine nose with aromas expressive fruity lemon and pear. The attack is ample and structured, revealing a beautiful aromatic intensity. The finish is balanced and elegant.
